Frontend Engineer focused on Web Architecture and large-scale user-facing platforms.

Builder mindset with experience leading frontend migrations, performance work, and AI-powered user experiences.

Work Experience

Software Engineer II, Hearst Autos

Remote • New York City (February 2025 - Present)

- Led the transition of the MotorTrend frontend onto Hearst infrastructure following the acquisition, owning migration, integration, and stabilization end to end
- Own frontend engineering and web architecture for large, user-facing platforms within Hearst Autos; set frontend patterns and guide architectural decisions as systems scale
- Mentor engineers through code reviews, design discussions, and day-to-day technical guidance

Software Engineer II, MotorTrend Group

Remote • El Segundo, CA (June 2024 - February 2025)

- Spearheaded the development of an AI-powered chatbot in the automotive domain, introducing discovery and engagement patterns for users
- Led a re-architecture of core frontend systems, reducing infrastructure costs from ~$7,000 to ~$2,000 per month
- This work laid the groundwork for the subsequent transition of the MotorTrend frontend onto Hearst Autos infrastructure following the acquisition

Senior Software Engineer, Truework

Remote • San Francisco, CA (February 2022 - June 2024)

- Led frontend development for core initiatives, owning execution from early design through launch and iteration
 - Drove major improvements to request and verification flows, increasing submissions (~40%) and revenue (~30%)
 - Helped build and scale Truework Direct, improving completion rates and coverage (55%→75%, 65%→92%)
 - Promoted to Senior within six months
